testimonials

"Victoria Redbard is a natural on stage. She has a very centred, confident and engaging presence that makes it comfortable for the audience to find their own experiences in her explanations and stories so that they feel understood by her. This way of connecting her work with their experience is the reason I have had Victoria back to speak at my events, Enlightenment in the Bedroom on three occasions. Victoria is eloquent but relaxed. She is approachable, but also has a deeply embodied connection with the work she shares, which is highly valued by me in the speakers I select.

As an event organiser, I found that Victoria was organised, responded to the guidelines of the event and provided requested information efficiently and on time. She was reliable, and respectful of the run sheet. When it comes to marketing her, Victoria's already built audience and platforms makes it easy as potential attendees can quickly understand the value to them of coming to see her. Her reputation precedes her. Additionally, her generosity of time, variety and depth of content and sharing of gifts added huge amounts of value to the event itself.

I thoroughly recommend Victoria Redbard as a speaker and exceptional contributor as an addition to any line up looking for depth of consideration, provocation of thought and genuineness of spirit."
